BACKGROUND

The African Peer Review Mechanism has received financing from the African Development Bank toward the cost of the African Peer Review Mechanism Institutional Support Project (APRM-ISP), and intends to apply part of the agreed amount for this grant as payments under the contract for a study on Drivers of corporate and economic governance performance in Africa.

Objective of the Assignment

The objective of the assignment is to help APRM Secretariat to conduct an empirical study, based on APRM working definitions, on the factors that drive the performance of corporate and economic governance in Africa.

Scope of the Assignment

The scope of service covers the responsibility of the consultant to draft a proposal of the study covering Africa. The consultant is expected to execute the assignment by gathering all the relevant data needed; analyse and report on the findings of the study. The study is expected to use mixed methodology approach with much emphasise on the empirical evidence. The empirical evidence should be thoroughly reflected using the APRM country review findings and recommendations; the progress reports of the reviewed countries, other studies within the research domain and interviews, where needed.

The Consultancy is scheduled to commence in October 2019 and the duration for the assignment shall be twelve (12) weeks.

The APRM now invites eligible consultants to indicate their interest in providing these services. Interested consultants must provide information indicating that they are qualified to perform the services (curriculum vitae and certified certificates, degrees etc.), description of similar assignments, and experience in similar conditions.
